January 2016

Employee Highlight

The Meadow House employee highlight for the month of December is Andrea Adkins. Andrea has worked at Midland Meadows for 6 months as a cook. She is currently in nursing school at Marshall University and is in the process of becoming a resident assistant at Midland Meadows. Andrea enjoys reading, sleeping, and talking. Andrea stated that she enjoys working at Midland Meadows because, "I love the atmosphere and spending time with the residents." Congratulations Andrea!

Road Trip: Uncork and Create

The residents took their second trip to Uncork and Create and made a snowman masterpiece. Each resident was given the blank wooden cutout of a snowman and followed the instructor's directions to create their own frosty friend! We want to give a special thanks to the Barboursville Uncork and Create for having us and letting us have this wonderful evening!

Employee Highlight

The Midland Place employee highlight for the month of December is Taylor Stephens. Taylor has worked at Midland

Meadows as a Resident Assistant on dayshift for 7 months. She enjoys drawing and spending time with her son who is 1 ½ years old. Taylor grew up in Wayne, but currently lives in Huntington. Taylor stated that she enjoys working at Midland Meadows because, "All of the residents are so loving and caring. They make me feel wanted and so happy to be around." Congratulations Taylor!

Holiday Celebration

Christmas is always a special time, and Midland Meadows loves to celebrate the holidays! Santa came to bring Christmas cheer and a gift for each resident. We sang Christmas carols with family, friends, and staff and welcomed in jolly old Saint Nick! We had such a great holiday season and look forward to next year, only 349 more days!
